

25th ANNUAL CONFERENCE CALL FOR PAPERS

Our theme:
'SURFING THE GREEN WAVE'

'The changing look of ornamental horticulture'

Mark the dates:
28 February to 2nd March 2023
Post Conference tour: 2 – 3 March 2023

The venue:
TO Strand Beach Resort, Port Edward, KZN

We're calling on subject matter experts willing to share their knowledge by presenting a paper at the 2019 IPPS Southern Africa Conference.

The theme for 2023 is ' SURFING THE GREEN WAVE: The changing look of ornamental horticulture ' and the aim of the conference is to explore the ways in which the horticulture industry, including affiliated businesses and farmers, are adapting to ever-changing market and environmental conditions.

We invite speakers to present a 20 minute formal format talk on a topic relating to the theme of the conference. 10 minutes will be provided for questions and discussions after each presentation.

We kindly request that presentations include one of the following suggested focus areas relating to our theme:

- Pest Management and control
- New developments and improved products and methods to increase production
- Staff management
- Irrigation practices and or growth media
- Tissue culture – hardening off

Please submit presentation proposals by 30th January 2023 to:
IPPS Southern Africa Secretary, Callan Cyster callan@shadowlands.co.za
OR
IPPS organising committee representative, Miranda Deutschländer
deutsms@unisa.ac.za.

PLEASE help us make 2023 a highly successful and informative conference by sharing your valuable knowledge.

Warm regards

Your IPPS Southern Africa, 25th Annual Conference Organising committee.
