7. DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

7.1 We share your Personal Information with the following parties:

- any IPPS employee or agent for the purposes set out in this Privacy Notice, (e.g. customer relationship management; software and service compatibility and improvements; or to provide you with any information that you have requested);
- our service providers and agents (including their sub-contractors) or third parties which process information on our behalf (e.g., internet service and platform providers, payment processing providers and those service providers or organizations who we engage to help us provide you with the IPPS services or to send communications to you);
- Regulators or government departments, in order to meet legal and regulatory obligations;
- any third-party in the context of actual or threatened legal proceedings, provided we can do so lawfully (for example in response to a court order);
- our own professional advisors, including attorneys and auditors for the purpose of seeking professional advice or to meet our audit or legal responsibilities.

7.2 We may share non-personally identifiable information about your use of the Website with third parties, but this will not include information that can be used to identify you.

7.3 Where we share or disclose your Personal Information as described above, such sharing and or disclosure will always be subject to an agreement which will be concluded as between ourselves and the party to whom we are disclosing your Personal Information to, which contractually obliges the recipient of your Personal Information to comply with strict confidentiality and data security conditions.

8. STORAGE AND/OR TRANSFER OF YOUR PERSONAL DATA

8.1 We use appropriate measures (described below) to keep your Personal Information confidential and secure. Please note, however, that these protections do not apply to information you choose to share in public areas such as third-party social networks.

8.2 We store your Personal Information in operating environments that use reasonable security measures to prevent unauthorised access.

- 8.3 We follow reasonable standards to protect Personal Data. The transmission of information via the Internet is, unfortunately, not completely secure and although we will do our best to protect your Personal Data, we cannot guarantee the security of the data during transmission through the Website.
- 8.4 It is important that you also play a role in keeping your Personal Information safe and secure. When signing up for an online account, please be sure to choose an account password that would be difficult for others to guess and never reveal your password to anyone else. You are responsible for keeping this password confidential and for any use of your account. If you use a shared or public computer, never choose to have your login ID/email address or password remembered and make sure to log out of your account every time you leave the computer. You should also make use of any privacy settings or controls we provide you on the Website.
- 8.5 The storage as well as the processing of your Personal Information as described above may require that your Personal Information is ultimately transferred/transmitted to, and/or stored at, a destination outside of your country of residence. We may also transfer your Personal Information to countries which have different data protection standards to those which apply in South Africa, but we will take reasonable steps to protect your Personal Information.
- 8.6 Once your Personal Information is no longer required due to the fact that the purpose for which the Personal Information is held has come to an end, such Personal Information will be retained in accordance with our IPPS records retention schedule, which varies depending on the type of processing, the purpose for such processing, the business function, record classes, and record types. We calculate retention periods based upon and reserve the right to retain Personal Information for the periods that the Personal Information is needed to: (a) fulfil the purposes described in this Privacy Notice, (b) meet the timelines determined or recommended by regulators, professional bodies, or associations, (c) comply with applicable laws, legal holds, and other legal obligations (including contractual obligations), and (d) comply with your requests.

9. OTHER SITES AND SOCIAL MEDIA

- 9.1 If you follow a link from our Website to another site or service, this Privacy Notice will no longer apply. We are not responsible for the information handling practices of third-party sites or services and we encourage you to read the privacy notices appearing on those sites or services.
- 10.2 The Website may enable you to share information with social media sites, or use social media sites to create your account or to connect your social media account. Those social media sites may automatically provide us with access to certain Personal Information retained by them about you (for example any content you have viewed). You should be able to manage your privacy settings from within your own third-party social media account(s) to manage what Personal Information you enable us to access from that account.

10. WHEN YOU PROVIDE US WITH INFORMATION ABOUT OTHERS

If you provide us with Personal Information about someone else, you are responsible for ensuring that you comply with any obligation and consent obligations under applicable data protection laws in relation to such disclosure. In so far as required by applicable data protection laws, you must ensure that you have provided the required notices and have obtained the individual's consent to provide us with such Personal Information and that you explain to them how we collect, use, disclose and retain their personal information or direct them to read this Privacy Notice.

11. YOUR INFORMATION AND YOUR RIGHTS

11.1 In terms of the data protection laws, you have the following rights:

- The right of access - You may ask us, free of charge, to confirm that we hold your Personal Information, or ask us to provide you with details, at a fee, on how we have processed your personal information.
- The right to rectification - you have the right to ask us to update or rectify any inaccurate Personal Information.
- The right to erasure (the 'right to be forgotten') - where any overriding legal basis or legitimate reason to process your Personal Information no longer exists, and the legal retention period has expired, you may request that we delete the Personal Information.
- The right to object to and restrict further processing- where we do not need your consent to process your Personal Information, but you are not in agreement with such processing, you may object to us processing such Personal Information.
- The right to withdraw consent - where you have provided us with consent to process your Personal Information, you have to right to subsequently withdraw your consent.
- The right to data portability - where you want your Personal Information to be transferred to another party, you can request this in certain circumstances.

12. CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY STATEMENT AND LAWS

12.1 We reserve the right to amend the Privacy Notice at any time, for any reason, and without notice to you other than the posting of the updated Privacy Notice on the Website.

12.2 The contents of this Privacy Policy shall be governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

12.3 If any provision of this Privacy Notice is judged to be illegal, void, or unenforceable due to applicable law or by order of a court of competent jurisdiction it shall be deemed deleted and the continuation in full force and effect of the remainder of the provisions will not be prejudiced.
